Business Communication: Mid Assignment

Assignment Overview

Applying for a job by preparing a cover letter, a CV, and an e-portfolio

Purpose

The goal is to understand how a cover letter and CV work together as a professional statement and argument. Through these documents, you present yourself as a qualified candidate and persuade a potential employer to invite you for an interview.

Audience

- Your potential employers, instructor, and classmates.

Tasks

Carefully read these instructions and follow the related class lectures.

- Find a detailed job advertisement in your field that interests you and matches your qualifications (for example, an internship). The basic educational requirement must be B.Sc. in EEE or CSE. You may search on the Bdjobs website.
- Save a copy of the job advertisement. It must be submitted with the assignment.
- Complete the provided Cover Letter Worksheet using information from the advertisement.
- Write a one-page cover letter following the worksheet and standard format.
    - Font: Times New Roman or Cambria
    - Font Size: 12
    - Margin: 1 inch on all sides
- Prepare a CV (approximately 1–3 pages) using a standard professional format.
- Create an e-portfolio. Customize the template creatively and include:
    - A profile photo
    - Personal information
    - A short video introduction
    - Your CV
    - Any relevant projects or achievements (if available)

❖ Share the e-portfolio link (URL) in Microsoft Teams. Note that your assignment will not be accepted if you do not attend the mock job interview with printed/soft copies of the job advertisement, completed worksheet, cover letter, and CV.

Plagiarism Policy

- ❖ Copying from any source will result in zero marks or cancellation of the assignment for the semester. You may use a template, but the content must be written independently.

Submission Checklist

Include the following items for grading:

- ➢ Screenshot or downloaded copy of the job advertisement
- ➢ Completed worksheet using information from the advertisement
- ➢ One-page cover letter based on the worksheet
- ➢ CV (1–3 pages)

Evaluation

- ✓ Cover letter and completed worksheet – 7 marks
- ✓ CV – 8 marks
- ✓ E-portfolio – 5 marks
- ✓ Mock Job Interview- 10 marks
- ✓ Total – 30 marks

Mock Job Interview

- Students must bring printed/soft copies of the cover letter, CV, completed worksheet, and job advertisement during the mock interview session.

Best wishes!
