Academic Style of Writing

Worksheet

Name:

ID:

Section:

Rewrite the following sentences academically as per the instructions.

1. I believe that online video games can help us to develop our concentration and problem-solving skills. (Rewrite it objectively)

2. COVID-19 is the deadliest contagious disease the world has ever seen. (Rewrite using cautious language)

3. As the past can't be changed, one shouldn't worry about it and focus on the present. (Rewrite avoiding informal elements)

4. A lot of stuff is happening to the world at the moment, like the war in Palestine. (Rewrite avoiding informal elements)

5. The ending scene of Titanic was so devastating that it made most of the audience cry. (Rewrite avoiding emotive language)

6. Eating fastfood is bad and should be avoided (use cautious language)

7. He is guilty (Use cautious language)

8. Computers are taking away our privacy (Use cautious language)

9. paper newspaper will disappear within next decade (Use cautious language)

10. The bus will arrive in ten minutes (Use cautious language)

11. I am right. (Use cautious language)

12. Studying for standard tests does not make the students proficient in English communication. (Use cautious language)

13. People are good. (Use cautious language)

14. The Earth is getting hotter.. (Use cautious language)

15. Politicians are dishonest. (Use cautious language)

16. We will meet tonight at 8.00 pm. (Use cautious language)

17. 1. I will start to go at exactly 10:30 in the morning. (Precise Language)

18. We are better than everyone else at checkers. (Precise Language)

19. Karen is wearing boots of the most extremely high quality in the world. (Precise Language)

20. I just can't believe how incredibly fast time goes by when you are not doing something totally boring. (Precise Language)

21. Tom is a generous guy. (Precise Language)

22. The two twins are like, perfectly identical.

23. It's getting near the time that the show is going to start. (Precise Language)