Problem- Solution Handout

Here are sentence prompts for writing solutions to problems:

1. To address [problem], [solution] can be implemented.
   Example: To address declining customer satisfaction, faster response times can be implemented.

2. [Solution] can help resolve [problem].
   Example: Providing access to interactive online resources can help resolve difficulties in accessing educational materials.

3. One way to overcome [problem] is by [solution].
   Example: One way to overcome traffic congestion is by improving public transportation infrastructure.

4. [Problem] can be tackled effectively by [solution].
   Example: Work-life imbalance can be tackled effectively by promoting flexible work schedules.

5. To solve [problem], it is important to [solution].
   Example: To solve low engagement in classes, it is important to include interactive activities.

6. [Solution] is an effective approach to solving [problem].
   Example: Conducting workshops is an effective approach to solving skill gaps among employees.

Now, Identify the Problems and write solution for following problems:

1. Many students struggle with adapting to diverse teaching methods used by different instructors.
2. A significant number of students have trouble maintaining focus during long study sessions.
3. Students often face challenges due to heavy traffic while coming to class.
4. Many students find it difficult to maintain a healthy diet due to the limited nutritious food on campus.
5. Students often experience anxiety during exams because of fear of failure.
6. Lack of sleep is a common problem among students who stay up late to study.